Occasionally an organization finds itself in a position where it required to defend itself in legal matters. Our expert witness services can provide you with the technical experts in various fields to perform analysis of the facts and represent their finds at your request. Our credibility in the area is founded upon our rich experience and unquestionable integrity.

All of our expert witness professionals are internationally recognized in their field. We don't provide these services in all areas but where we do we are the best.

We currently have expert witness capabilities in:

- Aerospace production and quality
- Product certification
- Product liability
- FAA regulatory issues
- DoD/NASA procurement issues
- Supplier responsibilities
- International sourcing
- Procurement process
- Logbook entries
